Greetings!

Dear Friends And Members,

We praise the Lord for the wonderful Easter Breakfast that the men of the church served last Sunday morning. The Lord gave us a number of visitors, and some very delicious food; as well as, good fellowship with church folks and visitors.

For the Discerning

— The Law of Christ —

“Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ” (Galatians 6:2).

The law of Christ is the love of the brethren. “A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye love one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another” (John 13:34-35).

The love of the brethren is an identification mark of those who are saved. “We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death” (1 John 3:14). It is clear, if a person, calling himself a Christian, does not have compassion for a fellow Christian, that person is lost and still “abideth in death.” On the other hand, the person who clearly evidences love for other Christians knows he is saved having “passed from death unto life.”

The love of the brethren is also a work of helping. “Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault (sin), ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted” (Galatians 6:1). The word, “restore” means “to mend”. The idea may be exemplified by the setting of a broken finger so that it can mend properly. Christians who are walking with the Lord are to have compassion upon those who are faltering in their walk, and are to help them to recover. This is done by brotherly love and by a gentle spirit, keeping in mind that any Believer might find himself faltering in his walk and needing the kind and loving assistance of another for help.

The love of the brethren is sharing with a brother in need. “But whoso hath this world’s good and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?” (1 John 3:17). The love of God does not abide in those who do not show compassion for a brother in need. That is why true Christians are exhorted, “let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth” (1 John 3:18). In other words, Christians are: to stop loving by words only, but continually love by deeds. The greatest example of this behavior is found in the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ. “Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren” (1 John 3:16).
